

Centro Kibrahacha awards the lucky winners of Lottery 2006

Diane Uchtmann, Director for the Centro Kibrahacha for the Elderly declared this year's fundraising lottery, "very successful," and seven smiling winners took home some great prizes on Wednesday afternoon. With the funds raised from the annual raffle, the center can continue to provide activities and services for Aruba's retirees that help to keep them involved and mentally acute.

Anna Maria Kock, a member of the center and grand prizewinner, is looking forward to taking her seventeen-year old grandchild Letizia for a one week all expense paid trip to Disneyworld. Segundo Coëllo won the second prize of a Caribbean Cruise, and announced he would love to find someone to take with him, if any ladies are interested.

Two medical centers won the next two prizes, Tandarts van Trikt a round trip KLM ticket to Amsterdam, and the Samy Dental Clinic in Dakota has a new Acer computer with flat screen.

Mr. van Gulick has a beautiful new Panasonic digital Camera with which to take many photos of his two beautiful grandchildren, Ashley and Vanessa, who accompanied him to the awards ceremony.

Harold de Cuba announced his entire family will enjoy the weekend stay at Playa Linda, and some outstanding employee of Martijn Trading will eventually receive the seventh prize, a dinner for two at the Radisson Resort's Sunset Grill Restaurant.

The last prize of a dinner for Two at Promenade Restaurant went to Laureen Dix.

Diane and Assistant Director Femke Fingal of Centro Kibrahacha say "Masha Pabien" to all the lucky winners, and also a heartfelt "Masha Danki" to all those who sold tickets and purchased them. The kind cooperation of all involved was essential in helping the center continue their important work. Congratulations winners!
